

RSM InterTax HR Insights February 2021

Update measures corona

RSM BELGIUM INFORMS YOU

We would like to inform you of some changes in the framework of the measures taken by the government in relation to the corona crisis.

TEMPORARY UNEMPLOYMENT CORONA

The temporary unemployment due to force majeure corona has been extended until 30 June 2021. The procedure remains unchanged.

TEMPORARY INCREASE HOMEWORKING ALLOWANCE

Since the corona crisis, people have been working more and more from home. Since March 2020, it is possible to grant a home-working allowance to employees without having to apply for a ruling from the tax authorities for an amount of EUR 129,48.

The maximum amount of this home-working allowance (exempt from taxes and social security contributions) will be increased to EUR 144,31 per month during the second quarter of 2021 (from 1 April to 30 June 2021).

As an employer, there is no obligation to increase the home-working allowance as it is a maximum amount.

If you would like to receive additional information on this matter, the Payroll & HR team of RSM Belgium is at your disposal (interpay@rsmbelgium.be).

RSM InterPay

RSM Belgium wishes, through this document, to provide general information, without the information contained in this document being considered as an opinion. The editorial staff shall endeavour to compose this edition as accurately as possible. However, we cannot guarantee that this information will always be accurate when it is received or that it will always be accurate in the future.