Empowering Global Businesses in Kuwait

Understanding the Unique Tax Landscape

Introduction

Kuwait's dynamic economy and evolving regulatory framework present unique tax challenges for global and multinational companies. At RSM in Kuwait, we possess an in-depth understanding of these intricacies, offering comprehensive tax solutions to help businesses navigate complexities and achieve sustainable growth.

Tax Challenges Faced by Global and Multinational Companies in Kuwait:

Corporate Income Tax: understanding the applicability on foreign company based on business structures and activities.

National Labor Support Tax (NLST), Zakat and Public contribution in State Budget: Complex calculations and compliance with Ministry of Finance in Kuwait.

Transfer Pricing: Ensuring compliance with prescribed limits on intercompany transactions to avoid adjustments and penalties.

Double Taxation Treaties: Navigating treaties to optimize tax efficiency.

Withholding Tax: Understanding obligations to avoid non-compliance.

Tax Administration: Managing documentation and timely submissions in a complex regulatory environment.

– CFO, Multinational Company in Kuwait

Case Study

ABC– Company registered with Kuwait Direct Investment Promotion Authority (KDIPA) needed tax credit certificate

Executive summary

A company registered with KDIPA required a timely tax credit certificate. They approached RSM in Kuwait for guidance. The RSM in Kuwait team explained the tax credit mechanism, prepared a detailed computation, and submitted a comprehensive report along with supporting documents to KDIPA. Consequently, the company obtained the tax credit certificate within the deadline, resulting in substantial tax savings.

The key challenge

- Understanding the guidelines and attending meetings with KDIPA officials to address all their questions and provide necessary explanations and supporting documents.
- RSM in Kuwait maintained constant dialogue with KDIPA officials until the tax credit certificate was obtained.

Our approach

- Our team possesses extensive knowledge and practical solutions for the information required by KDIPA's office. We submitted all necessary computations and supporting documents promptly.
- In instances where additional information and explanations were needed, our team scheduled various meetings.
- Ultimately, we submitted our audit report and obtained the final tax credit certificate.

Business benefits delivered by RSM in Kuwait

- The company registered with KDIPA obtained a tax credit amount exceeding its actual profits, resulting in no tax payment for the year under review.
- Our firm not only saved the company on taxes but also ensured timely execution of deliverables, obtaining the tax credit certificate before the deadline.
- Consequently, this company now prefers our firm as their service provider due to our consistent timely delivery and expert guidance on this subject matter.
