INDIVIDUAL – EXEMPTIONS

Interest Income

Below age 65	R 23 800
Age 65 and over	R 34 500

Interest received by or accrued to a non-resident may be exempt from tax.

Dividend Income

South African dividends received by a taxpayer are exempt from normal tax. Certain foreign dividends are exempt from normal tax. Taxable foreign dividends are subject to an exemption in the ratio of 25/45. No deductions are allowed for expenditure to produce foreign dividends. Dividends received by a South African resident individual from a REIT are subject to income tax. Non-residents receiving dividends from a REIT are only subject to dividends tax.

Employment outside of South Africa

With effect from 1 March 2020, R1.25 million p.a. of remuneration for employment outside South Africa will be exempt if the employee is outside of South Africa for >183 days during a 12 month period and for a continuous period >60 days during the 12 month period.

TAX FREE INVESTMENTS

Any amount received by or accrued to a natural person in respect of a tax free investment shall be exempt from normal tax.

Contributions are limited to an annual limit of R36 000 and a lifetime limit of R500 000.

MEDICAL SCHEME FEES TAX CREDIT

A natural person must deduct a credit from normal tax payable for contributions paid to a medical scheme of R332 each for the taxpayer and first dependant and R224 for each additional dependant per month.

ADDITIONAL MEDICAL EXPENSES TAX CREDIT

A natural person must deduct a credit from normal tax payable for additional medical expenses as follows:

Taxpayers over 65 or for persons with a disability

33,3% of [(fees paid to a medical scheme as exceeds three times the medical scheme fees tax credit) plus qualifying medical expenses].

Other taxpayers

25% of [((fees paid to a medical scheme as exceeds four times the medical scheme fees tax credit) plus qualifying medical expenses) as exceeds 7,5% of the person's taxable income].

INDIVIDUAL – DEDUCTIONS

Pension, Provident and Retirement Annuity Fund contributions

Total deduction limited to the lesser of:

R350 000; or

27,5% of the higher of

(a) remuneration excluding lump sum benefits, or

(b) taxable income excluding lump sum benefits before this deduction.

Any excess contributions are carried forward to the next year.

Donations

Donations to qualifying institutions are limited to 10% of taxable income before this deduction. Any excess shall be carried forward and be deemed to be a donation paid in the next year.

PROVISIONAL TAX

With effect from 1 August 2020	4.5%
--------------------------------	------

With effect from 1 November 2020, until change in the PFMA rate:

Late or underpayment of tax	7.00%
Refund of overpayment of provisional tax	3.00%
Refund of tax on successful appeal	7.00%
Refund of VAT after prescribed period	7.00%
Late payment of VAT	7.00%

Interest payable by SARS is deemed to accrue on the date of payment.

TRAVELLING ALLOWANCE

With effect from 1 March 2021:

Value of vehicle	Fixed Cost	Fuel Cost	Maintenance Cost
R	R	R	c
0 – 95 000	29 504	104,1	38,6
95 001 – 190 000	52 226	116,2	48,3
190 001 – 285 000	75 039	126,3	53,2
285 001 – 380 000	94 871	135,8	58,1
380 001 – 475 000	114 781	145,3	68,3
475 001 – 570 000	135 746	166,7	80,2
570 001 – 665 000	156 711	172,4	99,6
665 001 and above	156 711	172,4	99,6

A deduction for business travelling expenses may only be claimed against the allowance if a log book is maintained.

No fuel cost may be claimed if the employee has not borne the full cost of fuel, and no maintenance cost may be claimed if the employee has not borne the full cost of maintaining the vehicle (eg. if vehicle is covered by a maintenance plan).

Actual costs may be used instead of the tables.

80% of the allowance is subject to PAYE. However, only 20% of the allowance is subject to PAYE if the employer is satisfied that at least 80% of the use of the vehicle for the year of assessment will be for business purposes.

No tax is payable on an allowance up to the rate of 382 cents per kilometre based on actual distance travelled by the employee for business purposes. This alternative is not available if any other allowance or reimbursement is received from the employer.

EMPLOYER CONTRIBUTIONS

Medical scheme

The taxable fringe benefit is the full medical scheme contributions paid by the employer to a medical scheme. The taxable fringe benefit is deemed to be contributions paid by the employee for deduction purposes. The contributions are taken into consideration for PAYE purposes.

Pension, Provident and Retirement Annuity Fund

The taxable fringe benefit is the full contributions paid by the employer to any pension fund, provident fund or retirement annuity fund. The taxable fringe benefit is deemed to be contributions paid by the employee for deduction purposes. The contributions are taken into consideration for PAYE purposes.

COMPANY CARS

Monthly taxable benefit:

- 3,5% of the determined value (incl. VAT)
- 3,25% if vehicle is subject to maintenance plan
- If acquired under operating lease, the cost incurred under the operating lease plus the cost of fuel

The value is reduced on assessment in the ratio of business travel to total travel.

Where employee bears full cost of licence or insurance or maintenance, then the value may be reduced on assessment by multiplying the cost by ratio of private travel to total travel, excluding vehicles acquired under an operating lease.

Where employee bears full cost of fuel for private use, then the value may be reduced on assessment by multiplying private kilometres travelled by fuel cost in travel allowance table, excluding vehicles acquired under an operating lease.

A log book must be maintained to qualify for a reduction of the value.

80% of the value is subject to PAYE. This may be reduced to 20% where at least 80% of use is for business purposes.

TRUST - TAX RATES

Year of assessment ending 28 February 2022

Rate of tax 45%
Special trusts and testamentary trusts established for the benefit of minor children will be taxed at the individual tax rates.

Budget Proposals

It is proposed that the corporate income tax rate for companies will be reduced to 27% for years of assessment commencing on or after 1 April 2022. It is also proposed to broaden the corporate income tax base by limiting interest deductions and assessed losses.

WITHHOLDING TAXES

Dividends 20%

The withholding tax is levied on any dividend paid by a company, subject to certain exemptions, including a South African company as the beneficial owner.

Royalties 15%

Final tax imposed on the gross amount of royalties from a South African source payable to foreign residents.

Interest 15%

Final tax imposed on interest from a South African source payable to non-residents, subject to certain exemptions including interest paid by a bank.

Foreign entertainers and sportspersons 15%

Disposal of immovable property by a non-resident

Non-resident individual	7.5%
Non-resident company	10%
Non-resident trust	15%

For all the withholding taxes above there may be exemptions that apply, and in certain circumstances the tax rate may be reduced in terms of a tax treaty in place with the country of residence of the non-resident.

Service Fees

There is no withholding tax on service fees, but qualifying fees may fall into the provisions related to reportable arrangements.

MICROBUSINESSES

Sole proprietors, partnerships and incorporated businesses may elect to be taxed on a turnover based system. Year of assessment ending on or after 1 March 2021 up until 28 February 2022:

Taxable turnover	Tax liability

11 000 001 and above	1 026 000 + 13%

RESIDENCE BASIS OF TAXATION

Residents of South Africa are taxed on their worldwide income. Non-residents may be taxed on South African source income.

Definition of Resident

Individuals

- Any person who is ordinarily resident in South Africa.
- Any person who was physically present in South Africa for greater than 91 days per tax year for 6 consecutive tax years and was physically present for 915 days in aggregate during the first 5 years.

Companies

- Incorporated or effectively managed in South Africa, subject to exclusions.

Excluded from the definition of a resident is any person that is exclusively a resident of another country by virtue of an agreement for the avoidance of double taxation.

CAPITAL GAINS TAX

- Residents are subject to the tax on the disposal of their assets held worldwide, while non-residents are taxed on certain assets in South Africa.
- Gains accruing after 1 October 2001 will be subject to the tax, which will be levied on a realisation basis. Realisation occurs on disposal of an asset. Death, emigration and donation of an asset are deemed to be disposals.
- The first R40 000 a year of capital gain or loss realised by individuals will be excluded except in the year of death where such exclusion will be R300 000.
- The first R2 000 000 of capital gain or loss on the disposal of a primary residence will be excluded.
- Certain exemptions apply to personal use assets, assurance and retirement benefits, assets of a small business disposed of for retirement, compensation for personal injury, lottery receipts, foreign currency converted for personal use, diplomats and diplomatic missions, gains arising on assets donated to certain public benefit organisations.
- Rollover relief is provided for assets in certain circumstances (e.g. certain transfers between spouses or involuntary disposals).
- Capital gains will be taxed with other income, with a portion of the net capital gain being included in taxable income, depending on the nature of the taxpayer.

The following rates apply for disposal of assets:

Taxpayer	Inclusion rate	Maximum effective rate of tax
Individual &amp; special trust	40%	18%
Trust	80%	36%
Companies	80%	22,4%

LOANS TO A TRUST

A loan made by a natural person to a trust, subject to certain exclusions, that is interest free or bears interest at a rate that is less than the official rate of interest, may give rise to donations tax. The interest foregone will be treated as a donation made by the natural person.

Anti-avoidance provisions are in place to counter schemes whereby loans are made via companies and connected person relationships exist.
