RSM – A partner in the life of your company

Setting up a company is an exciting adventure, but it requires careful preparation to ensure success from the outset. At RSM, we are committed to being by your side right from the start of your entrepreneurial adventure and every step of the way.

Even before you set up your business, we will help you choose the optimum legal form, advise you on the ideal location, and draft company articles of association. We will also structure your investments to ensure efficient financial management and help you through the process of setting up the company. During the lifetime of your company, we offer you ongoing legal and tax support and carry out accounting or audit services to ensure that your operations are compliant and transparent. Finally, when the time comes to transfer or close your business, we provide support and advice to facilitate the transfer or resale of your company, with a strategic approach to maximising value for all parties.

Our service offering for your company is divided into three phases:

Before

- Assistance in choosing the optimum legal form for your company.
- Advice on determining the ideal location for your company.
- Drafting and creation of tailor-made articles of association.
- Structuring investments to ensure efficient financial management.
- Preparation and management of the company registration process.

During

- Legal and tax support throughout the business.
- Audit services to ensure compliance and transparency of operations.
- Customised financing options to meet the specific needs of your business.

After

- Support and advice to facilitate the transfer of your business.
- Assistance in the process of reselling the company, with a strategic approach to maximising value.
- Professional management of the liquidation of the company, ensuring an efficient and compliant closure.

At RSM, our commitment is to support you at every stage of your entrepreneurial journey, providing tailor-made solutions to ensure the success and longevity of your business.
